EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Enterprise sales and business-development executive with 18+ years of demonstrated efficacy in revenue architecture, complex solution selling, and cross-functional go-to-market execution across consumer packaged goods (CPG), healthcare and diagnostics, and decentralized-finance (DeFi) ecosystems. Most recently directed commercial execution for a multi-million-dollar portfolio within an enterprise generating $182M in annual revenue, with ownership of quota planning, forecasting, pricing architecture, and channel-partner negotiations spanning 600+ SKUs.

Recognized product-launch specialist with a replicable record of introducing novel offerings — from first-in-category molecular diagnostics to Web 3.0 infrastructure solutions — into enterprise, mid-market, and venture-stage environments. Technically fluent, active DeFi trader with applied expertise in automated market makers, on-chain liquidity provisioning, and protocol-level risk assessment, complemented by university-backed credentials in decentralized finance. Synthesizes methodological rigor (SPIN®, MEDDPICC®) with quantitative market analysis to compress sales cycles, institutionalize repeatable playbooks, and durably expand market share.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Senior Sales Executive

GHB · Full-time · Remote · Sep 2018 – Present

Lead commercial execution for a multi-million-dollar CPG portfolio within a business generating $182M in 2025 revenue.

- Exercise end-to-end ownership of quota planning, forecasting, pricing architecture, promotional strategy, retail penetration, and partner negotiations across key accounts and distribution channels.
- Managed and scaled a portfolio of 600+ SKUs, coordinating cross-functional execution across sales, marketing, and operations to improve sell-through, retention, and unit economics in a highly competitive, price-compressed market.
- Institutionalized repeatable go-to-market playbooks through structured coaching, process standardization, and performance optimization — elevating team-level productivity and forecast accuracy.
- Quota-driven operator translating complex products and programs into clear stakeholder education, rapidly adapting strategy to shifting market conditions.

Strategic Partnerships & Business Development — Web 3.0

Quantum AgencyX · Concurrent engagement · San Francisco Bay Area · Remote · May 2019 – Jan 2024

Directed strategic marketing, revenue growth, partnership development, and stakeholder engagement for a consultancy operating in the Web 3.0 / blockchain ecosystem.

- Designed and implemented multi-channel marketing strategies that measurably increased brand awareness, user acquisition, and revenue for Web 3.0 client engagements.
- Identified and pursued business opportunities congruent with corporate strategy, converting ecosystem analysis into a qualified partnership pipeline.
- Built durable relationships with investors, customers, and protocol partners, enhancing strategic capital and accelerating deal velocity.
- Increased awareness and adoption of Web 3.0 and DeFi solutions through sustained community interaction, thought leadership, and stakeholder education.
